HIS PRINCESSES

Camp Good News in Washington, IL, and Kidz Heart Ministries invites women and their daughters to attend a mother/daughter adventure weekend where, together, they will rediscover the majesty of God, grow in love for Him, and as a result, grow in love for each other.

Moms and Daughters will connect at deeper levels as they share this weekend together. Join us for high adventure through the camp's outdoor activities and significant worship as we explore His Majesty's eternal plan!

The weekend starts on Friday, at 4:30 PM and lasts until Saturday, around 7:00 PM. Cost is $75 per mother/daughter team plus $15 for each additional daughter. Your hosts for this weekend are Chris and Carrie Kallal of Camp Good News and Bonnie and Rod Abel of Kidz Heart Ministries.
